JUDGES OF TOBACCO.

Taste of Even the Best Experts Not Always Infallible.

"Even the best judges of tobacco can't always be depended on," remarked a dealer to a writer for the Washington Star. "Sometimes the taste goes back on them, so to speak, and remains blunted for a week at a stretch. One of my customers, for instance, is a well-to-do merchant, who is very particular about his cigars, and one of the few real connoisseurs in town. When he is in good form he can tell more about tobacco on a superficial examination than anybody I know, with the single exception of a dealer who has a big reputation as an expert. About a month ago he finally advised me to buy something else for awhile. He finally began to complain about a favorite brand of very high-class cigars. I knew the goods were all right, and advised him to buy something else for awhile. He finally began smoking a pipe, and used cheap cut plug that he declared was the best smoke he ever tried. One day, all of a sudden, his taste returned and he went back to the cigars. At present the bare smell of cut plug will make him sick. Strange, isn't it?" They tell me that the professional samplers of tobacco take a walk of every few months and never look at the world until they return to duty. In that way they keep in condition.

"The blood is the life." Science has never gone beyond that simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgment are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to impurity of the blood. No one can be well balanced in mind and body whose blood is impure. No one can have a wholesome and pure life unless the blood is pure. Foul blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the blood is pure, body and brain are alike healthy and life becomes a daily happiness.

Free—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1608 pages 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray expense of mailing only. Send 21 one cent stamps for paper covers, or 31 for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Letter From the Philippines.

SAN ISIDRO, N. E., P. I., March 7, 1901.

DEAR MOTHER:—Your letter came to me a few days ago and I enjoyed the news about home very much. We are pegging along over here and the insurgents and rebels are being good as can be. This will end, however, when all the crops are gathered and the men can resume their guns. In the meantime we are finding their guns and am using every day, and seem to be getting them pretty well cleaned out.

I am enjoying the best of health, am also cooking for an officers mess and get plenty to eat.

My time is getting pretty short now; when you get this I will have less than seven months to serve in the army.

Well, everything is dry, dusty and hot as can be now as the dry season is well advanced. I suppose it seems strange to think that while you are looking for snow and building big hot fires, I am running around in my shirt sleeves looking for shade. The nights here are clear and cool enough to make a blanket useful, so we get lots of good sleep.

You can't wish more than I that I was at home eating chicken pie with you, it would be great indeed.

The hot sun has put quite a tan on my face and hands, but I believe I could still pass as white. We are not in the field so much lately as we are used to according to directions would aid nature that only a short time would be required to bring perfect health.

It is astounding to know how many thousands are daily sufferers and who are in the very reach of a cure. Mothers, won't you supply your home with this great remedy, and won't you administer it the little ones when they are feeling badly. It is a remedy that once tried you will ever keep in your home. Here are a few testimonials:

DEAR SIR—I was a general officer of the Georgia line, in the late war between the states, and by privation and improper diet my digestion was much impaired. The prescriptions of eminent physicians and proprietary medicines were resorted to in vain, and I had come to think my long habit of constipation was beyond the remedy of medicine.

"Some months since my attention was attracted to the claim that in the use of Lyons' Laxative Syrup the habits of nature were restored, and that a continual increase of quantity in the medicine was not required, but that the dose might be made less. This I find to be entirely true, and am now better than at any time since the conflict—1861-1865. I may add that Dr. Renner, editor of two medical journals, has used it in his family.

Yours truly,
HENRY W. CLEVELAND,
Elder, Meth. Epis. Church South."

"I have been using your remedy and believe it to be a blessing to suffering humanity, and gladly recommend it to persons suffering with ailments for which it is recommended.

Yours truly,
A. MILLER,
633 First St., Henderson, Ky."

"Your sample bottle of Lyons' Laxative Syrup received. I have tried it and find it to be all you recommend. I will try and keep it the house as my little girl and I are troubled with constipation.

I will tell my neighbors and friends about your Laxative Syrup. I will tell my druggist about it, and I am glad to have found so great a remedy for constipation, and may all who suffer with this disease soon learn about your wonderful remedy.

May God bless you and prosper you in your good work. Thanks for sample bottle.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. MARY E. KING,
Sugar Creek, Pa."

Every man or woman with the average forethought will keep in their homes just such remedies as are most helpful. When the baby cries it may hungry, it may not.

Offer the little one the most palatable preparations and if it refuses to eat, be sure it is sick. What is the matter, is the is the first query. It can't sleep; it is in misery and in your distress the physician is summoned, who, after diagnosing the case, informs the mother that the trouble is indigestion as the result of constipation.

True the good doctor relieves the little sufferer, but how much better it would have been to have secured of W. S. Lloyd, your druggist, a bottle of Lyon's Laxative Syrup and given the little fellow one dose and have eased its pain.

This remedy is a home medicine and just as indispensable as the paragore, the laudanum or camphor.

Often the grown man will go for weeks, unrest, sleepless, complaining of a continuous tired feeling, not knowing that for 50 cents invested in this home medicine he could be permanently cured or so started in that direction that a few bottles used according to directions would aid nature that only a short time would be required to bring perfect health.

It is astounding to know how many thousands are daily sufferers and who are in the very reach of a cure. Mothers, won't you supply your home with this great remedy, and won't you administer it the little ones when they are feeling badly. It is a remedy that once tried you will ever keep in your home. ## FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS

Plum and North Middletown.
Choruses of Song.

On Friday morning the writer was up before 5 o'clock for a trip to Bourbon county. The sun was then shining and the prospects for a fair day were encouraging.

All things appeared joyful and happy as our journey we pursued. Mother Earth smiled because of her escape from the snow storm of the previous week. There were choruses of song from the field-lark, hollow hammer, blackbird, sparrow & wren; wheat and blue grass carpeted flock and herd; fruit tree flower gladdened the eye; a flock of wee chicks occupied the attention of mother hen, a pair of dove (not cooing) glistened before us rejoining in each other's companion ship and seemed to say, the one:

"Where thou leadest I will follow," the other. "There is none lovelier, than thou, thy voice is sweetest music to me, the sheen of thy plumage is most beauteous."

Gratitude and praise were everywhere. We would not overlook the cubs. Seldom do we notice evidence of thankfulness surpassing the inarticulate wiggle of the lamb's tail as he takes his breakfast, dinner supper and lunch.

Let us men and women catch the spirit of praise and thanksgiving and rejoicing.

If you can, spend a day in the country among the birds and flowers. The procession with captivating song and banners of varied beauty living has just begun. Fortunate is he who has the inclination and time to view it.

The suit by Mrs. B. F. Walls, of Marion, for divorce and $10,000 damages has been withdrawn and again the course of love runs smooth.

J. H. Derleksen sold a mule to James McDonald for $85.

At the home of David Johnson we saw a pair of six-months old hounds belonging to J. F. Johnson and J. H. Wilson. These pups were bought in Ohio and are said to be thoroughbred.

PLUM.

Since our last call W. R. Hopkins, son of J. H. Hopkins, has gone to house-keeping near the village. On February 20 he married Miss Frances Gertrude Thompson, daughter of A. B. Thompson.

James H. Stettner, aged 80, who lives across the Nicholas line, died on Tuesday, April 23, and was buried on Thursday at Carlisle. He was an honorable and highly respected old gentleman.

E. J. Gallagher, for many years a resident of Montgomery, is now engaged in blacksmithing and repair work. His brother William lives with him.

A telephone line has been completed from Carlisle as far as Plum. At present the country subscribers are Jeff and A. P. Bryant, Dr. P. L. McClure and W. L. Bramblett. The extension of the line is undecided. A connecting line from North Middletown is talked of. The subscribers pay $2 for a box, and own it. The use of the line next year will be $5.

LITTLE ROCK.

Mrs. Jane Watkins, aged about 80 years, is seriously sick. Her son, D. B. Watkins has been an invalid since early last fall, and is confined to his bed.

J. W. Bramblett's five-year-old daughter has pneumonia.

Wm. Squires' daughter is much improved.

A. L. Super, the merchant, was in Cincinnati.

Rev. H. B. Smith, now of Ashland, has been engaged to preach for the Christian church. He and family will occupy the parsonage, he begins next Sunday.

NORTH MIDDLETOWN.

On Friday A. S. Trimble sold to Moore, Everman & Mitchell the dry goods stock of Trimble Bros., and conveyed by deed to J. A. and C. W. Jones his residence.

H. S. Caywood sold to G. W. Bramblett 35,000 pounds of tobacco at 7c. E. K. Thomas to same party about $20,000 at 7c and 6c.

The East Tennessee Telephone Co. will soon establish an exchange here. Will start with about 50 subscribers.

The American Telephone Co. have a large force, probably 70 men, pushing their line from the south to Charleston, W. Va., where eastern connections will be made. They were on Saturday one mile from town.

H. S. Caywood, John Collins,

Robt. Harris and A. Gilkey are experts in sheep culture.

This reminds us of the early bird which catches the worm—a pleasant experience for the bird but hard for the worm. We do not mean to say these gentlemen are "birds." They were a little premature in their calculations about the weather, as sheared their sheep before the storm which occurred on 19-21. Mr. Caywood lost 8, Collins 12, Harris 20, Gilkey 1. We heard that other farmers lost several.

There has been considerable talk about an electric railroad from Lexington to town. There is a disposition to guarantee right of way.

The most pleasant experience of the trip was our stay at the College on Friday night. We much enjoyed the talk with the principal, Mrs. J. B. Skinner. For the first time we met her corps of teachers. We are pleased to know the College is in a prosperous condition.

On Friday enroute to town we called at the country home of Rev. C. W. Dick. He had gone fishing. On Saturday we met Mr. Jaa. Bryant and made inquiry of the person. He had gone fishing. We wish him much success as a fisherman.

On Saturday morning enroute to Plum we stopped near the home of K. P. Moore, where is the Horton burying ground. The sacred spot is now in a pasture unprotected by fence or enclosure of any kind. Here are several graves—some of which have fine specimen of stone sarcophagi. The oldest slab which we saw bore the name of William Horton, born January 29, 1762, died July 2, 1842. The ravages of time have caused the reading of the inscriptions to be rather difficult. We were alone so could ask no questions. We reflected upon the passing away of the country graveyard—especially with the next generation.

On Saturday we passed through Plum, went by Pat Henry's store to the one to Sharping: shuck handles called on Mr. Z. T. Moffett, and wife who now live in town since he sold his farm; heard something about the man who was "to be taken in" on the ground floor of the modern investment company; heard a merchant disparaging the building of an electric road to Mt. Sterling, preferring our from Lexington or Paris via Sharping to Owingsville or the regions beyond. The bell tapped at 4:30 p.m. and we were off for Mt. Sterling.

On Sunday we passed through North Middletown.

Mr. editor I see in your last issue everything has gone wrong in the primary in your town. I am mighty disconsolate. I lost heavily on Henry what has come over you gimmers down there. I never so shure Henry would prove a winner I slaped up evry cent mee and the old woman had on him, I am losser all a round, I believe Henry and all the rest of us gimmers have better call our committee to gather and see what is wrong. There must be sumthin a little scatterin sprung up in our ranks. I can't think it wer caused for the lacking of machen oil as I no weewer heeled all rite with the proper stuff that is usally used to pilot us thrue. I heard one old black leg jamb eater say Henry lost his head, my lord I hope that ant su there is a big diferece in runing and buying the sum say there wen no hoodie or bug juice in it this time. That may sound all rite to man up a tree but it wont doest an old soilder's stomach, but wee will let her go at that as wee have more times a coming as the clouds role by. I did all I could to save our boys but as the tide were against us we will have to join Aranabalo and let um rip. I am going on the road soap as a lumber dauner for a chicago match factory. There is a emence quantity of white pine lumber used in the match business now. Wee boss won write much this time as I am not at all wel at present. I met with a little accident last night. I wen out a little on the out skirts of town and it wen pretty dark I past under a small tree close to a fence and I heard a little noise and I looked up the tree and as I thought were crows rustling up in the tree I concluded I would get one or two for pets as I hopped to have a emy sack with me I hopped the fence and grabbed one, and it begin to flutter and bang wen a gun and a few bird shot struck mee and I had to huse for home I am prettysore now but my morn says I am not dangerously hurt. I hope to be out in a few days.

SUMMER COON.

Mr. S. D. Simpson, of Albany, Ky., cashier and one-third owner of the Bank of Albany and Miss Solidie Cosby, daughter of H. C. Cosby, a druggist at Dixon, were married in Indianapolis Wednesday.

There is a romance in their marriage in the fact that they met for the first time less than a week ago. Look out for divorce proceedings.

EMPEROR "BILL."

By J. Hammond Brown.

Emperor, I am Emperor! I reign
Over the world, and they submit.
They submit, and they submit.
When their freedom is lost,
I'll laugh and do a bit.
I am Emperor, I am Emperor!
I am emperor, I am Emperor!
I shall reign for the rest of my life
And not for a day.

Emperor, I am Emperor!
When I was born, I upheld my cause
And that God-given right.
I have renounced all my might
And now I am a poor, poor fellow of none.
For I am Emperor! Bill.

All God's creatures like I do.
I will run things my own little way
With a smile, and I shall do.

They have renounced one king, God
Allows people to have been sold
To the other, if the same.
They are calling me a dreadful name, but my heart is taken.
For I am Emperor! Bill.

I'll freeze out to all that's in sight;
What man I know can't buy with his gold
I'll take, and then get out of sight.

For I am Emperor! Bill,
My master's as short as the day.
Many promises never are kept
Since we both know what I say.

Two Dangers To America.

The New York Herald of Saturday, April 20, contained two cablegrams from London which were published in parallel columns, and which was sufficiently striking to be reproduced. The first was an interview with Mr. Poulton Bigelow, as follows:

London, Friday.—Mr. Poulton Bigelow, who has just returned to London after delivering a course of lectures at Harvard and Yale, declares that America is heading toward revolution. He said to day: "Commercialism is running riot in the United States. The Yankees are robbing their ideas and energies into money. The trust-builders are doing the rest. These money kings necessarily exercise a blighting influence on the morals of public servants, they create all manner of temptation and breed all manner of robbery."

In Washington I found cynical contempt for the Constitution. Corruption stalks through the government. It disgraces the halls of Congress, which are little more than a brokerage shop for the sale of authority to fleece the people. Legislators, department officials and petty public servants of all kinds neglect no opportunity to turn their official prerogatives to profit.

"I learned many specific instances of flagrant robbery, especially in connection with the Philippine war. There are a thousand officials who owe it stealing, ranging from very small to very large amounts. They don't want the struggle to come to an end. They would much prefer to see it indefinitely prolonged."

"Of course I shouldn't think of reflecting upon men like Messrs. Hay and Taft, but if Mr. Hay were the angel Gabriel and Mr. Taft St. Peter came to earth they couldn't stop the complex, far-reaching system of robbery which prevails in the public service."

"President Hadley, I see, denies that he said that a continuance of present tendencies would lead an Emperor in Washington in twenty-five years. I don't see why he should desire to deny such a statement. We would better have an Emperor—some one to take a firm stand against the rising tide of official immorality—than to have rulers who have no interest in the Government beyond the outcome of the next election. I had rather live under Emperor William than under the vicious tyranny of twit, way, oil and steel kings."

"America needs a thorough arousing of the public conscience. She needs to deliver her from the slavery of capitalism such men and women as delivered her from slavery of human beings. In other words, she needs an epidemic of cranks—cranks like Garrison, crank like England had in Cobden and Bright."

The second was a European view of the danger of the future to America, and was:

London, Saturday.—The Spectator today discusses "The Continent and America," taking as its text a portion of an interview with Admiral Canavery at Toulon, which the Spectator believes has not attracted the attention it deserves.

Admiral Canavery in concluding his utterances regarding the Triple and Dual alliances having given European thirty years of peace, said: "This fact would, perhaps, lead European nations to consider the necessity of uniting against America, Africa and Asia, as the future of civilization will require them to do so."

The Spectator does not consider this the rash outburst of the "man in the street," for Admiral Canavery has been Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs.

"His utterance," the Spectator says, "corresponds exactly with that of Count Gorczynski (Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister) and with all the recent trend of affairs. The annoyance of the Continent with America, which is very deep, is based upon three reasons, the first being the dread, or, rather, the conviction, that competition with America is nearly impossible, her wealth and energy being too great. Both are employed, the Continent thinks, to monopolize trade, and so to control in the end all the wealth of the world, an idea not without advocates even among ourselves."

The Spectator mentions the giant trusts and protection, and retains the Americans as "not scrupling to commence a quick and severe re-broad, if European governments force them off with tariffs."

"The second reason," the article says, "is that America is sadly in the way in Asia. The whole action of the Washington government in the Chinese muddle points to the conclusion that, although the Americans took the Philippines, they are not willing to see any but native Powers in control of the richest countries of Asia."

"The third reason is America's attitude in South America. She will neither take it nor let anybody else."

"The total result is a bitter dislike of America, mixed with dread. Our object is only to awaken the Americans from an illusion, to induce them to increase their fleet and to persuade them to think steadily on what they are doing. They may rely upon it that the Continent will lose nothing for want of planning, and that, when the alliance against America, of which Admiral Canavery talks, is transmitted intact, it will be full grown and full armed."

HORSE AND TRACK.

During the St. Louis Fair in 1900 a $50,000 stake will be rotated for the money to be divided between the first three horses.

Lord Derby 2.07 is considered by some as the best prospect in Ed Geers' stable or anybody else's stable.

The filly foal out of Little Lovaine 2.05, sired by Star Pointer 1.594 has a speed inheritance of 2.023, as far as the fastest in the world.

L. C. Riddle, of this place, has sent to Dr. W. F. Lickerson to be trained over the Lexington track, the bay filly, three years old, by Ashland Wilkes, dam by Pretender.

The free-for-all race at the Brighton Beach track next fall should result in a great race. The entries include Peter the Great 2.07; Lord Derby 2.07, Charley Herr 2.07, Georgia 2.07, Bessie Kelly 2.08; York Boy 2.09; Bims 2.09; The Monk 2.08; and Mount 2.09. This will be one of the best field of horses ever brought together.

Borsalino and the Abbott will meet at Lexington in October for a $30,000 purse. Crescena and Charlie Herr will race for a $12,000 purse. Both of these races take place on Oct. 9th.

Speaking of the growing scarcity and increased value of high-grade carriage horses, John B. Doerr, president of the Fife, Doerr & Carroll Horse Company in New York, said: "We were lucky in getting together nearly two hundred coach horses before the season opened. People seem to be just finding out that we keep fancy carriage horses, and our sales in this department are going far and away ahead of last year. Without a big reserve stock to draw on, we could never supply the demand this spring, for it is simply impossible to buy horses of this type as fast as we are selling them. We are still buying, but horses of the right sort are now very scarce, and we have to pay like sixty for them. I estimate that we saved fully $15,000 by purchasing heavily last fall. In other words, if we had to buy now all the horses we have on hand at the training farm in Westchester county they would cost us not less than $15,000 more than we paid for them last year."

Rev. Homer T. Wilson will deliver a great lecture at the Opera House Thursday evening.

We can tell you what well dressed men will wear this Spring. Ask us.

GOOD MORNING, SIR!

We would like to have a little two or three minutes talk with you. Draw your chair a little closer; make yourself comfortable. We are not going to detain you. Say, have you bought a SPRING SUIT? So, have you heard or do you know of STEIN-BLOCH and HAMBURGER BROS. Tailor-made Ready-to-wear Clothes? We handle them. The spring styles are now ready and we are showing all the latest weaves in the new Green and Olive Colorings, cut in the regular 4-button Sack and Military 3-button Sack style. We carry stout, slims, and all sizes. Come in and try them on and you will see why we push Stein-Bloch and Hamburger Bros. Clothes. If you are a tailor-made man, so much the better. If you have been trading somewhere else we will make a customer of you.

Suits from $15 to $25.
Top Coats from $15 to $35.

Thank You: Good Morning!

THE BUSY BEE CASH STORE

Has decided to throw their entire stock of merchandise upon the market for 30 days at the most unfeared of slaughtered prices ever before named in the history of Mt. Sterling.

Backward season, overhanging, overstocked and the crowded condition of our store has caused this sale. We are compelled to have money to meet our spring bills, and a great sacrifice sale helps our customers and helps us.

We shall take each Department as it comes and spare not a single article in any of them. We play no favorites. Nothing reserved. They must all go.

We commence this week with Clothing and Shoes. If you are familiar with our prices in these departments, you could not recognize them now. The cold steel of our keen-edged knife went to the quick, and not a single old price is left to tell the tale.

Suits that were $15 to $18 are now $9 to $11. Suits that were $10 to $12.50 are now $6.50 to $8. Suits that were $7.50 to $9 are now $3.48 to $4.98, and our lower-priced suits are almost thrown in to make up your bundle. Our Boys and Children's suits and pants have been cut so deep that you can't possibly recognize them. When we say half price we don't exaggerate. Call and see for yourselves; don't take our word for it. Bring your boys along, for you will wish you had. The suits can't stay with us long at these prices. We mean business.

We know it is death to competition to turn loose as big a stock of Shoes as we carry at prices we are turning them out at during this sale, but we can't help it. We are forced to do it. They must go or we must, and we prefer to stay.

Come and buy all the Shoes and Slippers you expect to need this spring and summer while this sale lasts. You have been our friends, and we appreciate it. This is good advice we give you. Profit by our loss while you can. This sale can't last long.

Watch our circular for sale date of other departments. They will all feel the knife before we ease up. This is the verdict of the Busy Bee Cash Store corporation and can't be changed.

Hoping our many friends and patrons will avail themselves of this unprecedented chance to buy all the goods they need for months to come, we,

Very Respectfully,

DEATHS.

WHITSETT.—The Winchester Democrat says: "A telegram was received here yesterday announcing the sudden death at Kansas City Mo., of Mrs. Mary Whitsett, aged seventy one years. She was originally Miss Kidd, and was a sister of W. B. Kidd, of this city. She married Achilles Eubank, of this country, and after his death she married W. D. F. Whitsett, who died a year or two ago. She leaves five sons, Doc Eubank, of this county, Ambrose Eubank, of Colorado; Rev. Marion Eubank, now a Baptist Missionary in China, and Davis Eubank, of Kansas City Mo. She also leaves four daughters, three of whom live in Missouri, and one in Colorado. She was a good, Christian woman and was loved by all who knew her."

Mrs. Whitsett was also a sister of Mrs. George W. Anderson, this county; Mrs. Anna Stevenson, Hodges Station; Mrs. Bettie Hindgill, Winchester and J. S. Kidd of Cincinnati. Mrs. Whitsett was a member of the Baptist church and her son, Rev. P. A. Eubank, missionary to Africa, went out from the Mt. Sterling Baptist church. It was her ambition to indoctrinate her children in Bible theology and then to send them out to do good in the world. She was a fine woman adorned with Christian grace.

LION.—On last Monday night, after several years of declining health, another of our esteemed life was measured by the golden rule.

FULT.—Jane Fult was found dead in bed at her home near Salt Lick, on Friday.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. W. B. Gray will preach at Springfield church on second Sunday in May.

Regular services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening as usual.

Rev. S. E. Whipple will preach at Howard's Mill Baptist church second Sunday, May 12.

Subject for prayer meeting Wednesday evening at Baptist church is "Under the eve of Christ." Mk. 12:41.

On Monday, May 6th, Rev. Lloyd Darsie, of Paris, will begin a meeting at the Frankfort Christian church.

Rev. Andy Haekett, of Winchester, will preach at the Henry schoolhouse at Bridge on Grassy, near Judy, on Sunday night.

Homier T. Wilson will lecture at the Opera House May 2nd, for the benefit of the Baptist church. Subject: "Sparks from the Anvil."

John F. Richardson has bought the Cap Gillispie farm of 123 acres near Plum, part of which is in this county and part in Bourbon, at $60 per acre. Mr. Richardson has rented the farm to Mr. Gillispie for this year.

Rev. A. K. Savage, pastor of Methodist church at Frankfort, has been holding a meeting for the past two weeks, doing all the preaching himself. At almost every service confessions are made. A general religious revival seems to have taken hold of our capital city. The first meeting was at the first Baptist church, Rev. M. B. Adams pastor, resulting in 55 admissions to his church. The Methodist follow the Baptist and the Christian congregation will follow the Methodist. Rev. Adams, of the Baptist church, aroused the Christian people when he told them in a series of sermons of the sin in all its forms in Frankfort, and drew the line lastly between the church and the world.

LANGUID

Many a school-girl is said to be lazy and shiftless when she doesn't deserve the least bit of it. She can't study, easily falls asleep, is nervous and tired all the time. And what can you expect? Her brain is being fed with impure blood and her whole system is suffering from poisoning.

Such girls are wonderfully helped and greatly changed, by taking

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Hundreds of thousands of schoolgirls have taken it during the past 50 years. Many of these girls now have homes of their own. They remember what cured them, and now they give the same medicine to their own children. You can afford to trust a Sarsaparilla that has been tested for half a century.

If your bowels are constipated take Ayer's Pilla. You can't have good health unless you have daily action of the bowels.

"One box of Ayer's Pilla cured my dyspepsia." LUD. CAREY, Bala, N. Y.
